Privacy Policy: Our Privacy Principles and What They Mean

Privacy Statement

Hillmount Strategies and Dissertation Writing Network (collectively referred to as "we," "us," or "our") are committed to protecting your privacy. This Privacy Statement outlines our information gathering and dissemination practices specifically for clients and users of Dissertation Writing Network accessing our doctoral dissertation seminars and services. If you have questions regarding this statement, please contact us at webmaster@DissertationWritingNetwork.com.

Introduction

As a leading provider of online doctoral dissertation seminars and services for universities, individual doctoral students, and educators, we invite you to explore our website and learn more about our offerings.

Information We Gather/Track

- Our website does not log IP addresses or browser types and does not link IP addresses to personally identifiable information. As a result, user sessions remain anonymous.
- While you can browse our site anonymously, we encourage everyone to register to help us better understand and serve our customers. Our registration form collects names, email addresses, and academic background information.

Voluntary Information Requests

We maintain an email list to provide monthly newsletters about our services. By providing academic preferences and demographic information, you help us enhance our offerings. Users can choose to receive communications from us voluntarily. If you wish to unsubscribe or remove your email, you can do so upon request.

Data Collection on Forms

We collect personal information through our Contact and Registration Forms, including your name, postal address, email, and (if applicable) purchase credit card number.

Registration Form Use

Information collected on our Registration Forms is solely for processing registrations, delivering requested materials, and billing. We may use this data for marketing purposes and to communicate with you when necessary. Users can opt out of future mailings.

Security Measures

When you purchase our services, your personal and credit card information is encrypted for secure transmission. Your data is stored securely and erased from our database after processing to minimize the risk of unauthorized access.

General Advice

While we strive to protect the privacy of our visitors, we are not responsible for actions taken by other parties concerning your transmitted information. Using shared or public computers may expose your data. Be cautious of the potential for others to access your usage history.

Amendments

We may amend this Privacy Policy anytime by posting a revised version on our website. This policy does not protect the privacy of visitors whose activities on our site may be deemed illegal, improper, or abusive.

Last Revised

This Privacy Statement was last revised on March 17, 2025.
